

Inese Rozensteine

Policy analyst with a deep understanding of international political and economic processes, outstanding organizational skills, and diplomacy, with remarkable experience in project management, leadership, government affairs, and public communication.

Work experience

Head of European Affairs (01/2023 – present)

French Agricultural Research Centre for International Development (CIRAD)

Responsible for transversal management within the organization related to European Affairs, including the implementation of the European Strategy. This involves managing relations with stakeholders at the European level, as well as with European partners and networks. Representing CIRAD at national, European, and international events and meetings related to European Funding and policies. Ensuring effective communication and interface between scientific activities and European policy-making processes.

European Project Manager (02/2021 – 12/2022)

University of Montpellier

Coordination of European project related to innovation detection and entrepreneurship. Through different projects transform internal policies, strategies and practices towards more open, responsible research and innovation. Main projects: TORCH (Transforming Open and Responsible Research and innovation through Charm-EU Alliance) and TRUE (Transforming University towards Entrepreneurship). Both projects are subject to a consortium with more than 5 academic and non-academic partners.

Self-employed, consultant – policy analyst (01/2021 – 07/2022)

In cooperation with different organizations, such as the OECD and the DTC (Developing Trade Consultants), analyze public policies through various projects ordered by governments. The two projects completed in 2021/2022: (1) analysis of trade barriers between Ireland and England (Northern Ireland) after Brexit; (2) develop a qualitative database analyzing the benefits of international trade agreements.

Trade Policy Analyst (09/2016 – 12/2020)

Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development - OECD

STRI (Services Trade Restrictiveness Index) is a regulatory database covering 22 services sectors in 46 countries. Managing yearly update of the database, covering the latest policy changes and leading country expansion that includes management of a team of 4 – 17 consultants, leasing with stakeholders, Member State representatives and European Commission and organisation of high-level workshops to present project and results. Develop project's internal and external communications strategy.

Counsellor of the Director (09/2016 - 09/2017)

Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development - OECD

Coordination of Directorate's day to day issues. Liaison with the OECD Council, the Office of Secretary General, other Directorates and Delegations/ European Commission. Organisation of Trade Committee and Committee for Agriculture Meetings, Global Forum of Trade. Responsible for drafting documents of strategic importance for the Organisation.

Consultant (06/2014 - 09/2016)

Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development - OECD

Developing STRI (Services Trade Restrictiveness Index) Database for Latvia (analysing legal framework for trade in services) and Lithuania. Updating legal database for Belgium, Luxembourg and Russia, South Africa, Estonia. Drafting the STRI part of Market Openness Review for Latvia and Lithuania, country notes. Legal research. Leading negotiations with involved countries. Supervision of junior consultants.

Contact information

8 rue des Consuls, Lattes, 34970,
France

+(33)6 48 . 61. 71. 91.

inese.rozensteine@gmail.com

Languages

Latvian (native)

English (bilingual C2)

French (bilingual C2)

Russian (intermediate B1)

Academic background

Master in International Business Law

Université Paris - Nanterre (2012 – 2013)

Master theses: The role of Argentina in ICSID (in French)

Master in International Public and European Law

Université Paris - Sud (2010 - 2012)

Master theses: ACTA and the reasons of its failure (in French)

ERASMUS programme in international relations

Sciences Po Paris (2008 – 2009)

Bachelor degree in political science

University of Latvia (2006 - 2009)

Bachelor theses: Second track diplomacy in the Visa Waiver program between Latvia and United States of America (in Latvian)